Not Believed, However, that It Means Recall.

Is Going to Japan to Confer in Regard to Treaties Which Soon Expire - Promotion of Japanese

No definite information could be obtained vesterday in regard to the reorted recall of Baron Kogoro Takahira,

The Ambassador, accompanied by Maanao Hanihara, secretary of the Embassy, spent the day in Philadelphia. where he delivered an address. A high official of the State Department said no information had been received of the Ambassador's recall. He added it was "highly improbable" that Baron Takahira had been recalled.

The Ambassador returned home late

There has been much speculation amon embers of the diplomatic corps regarding the matter ever since it was announced a few days ago that the Ambassador would leave shortly for a trip Japan. The purpose of the visit Tokyo, it was explained, was to confer with officials of the Japanese foreign office regarding the revision of the exand Japan, which expires in 1911. Baron Takahira will leave Washington shortly after the present session of Congres

Important Matters Pending.

There are several important diplomatic natters pending in the Japanese foreign office, which might make it necessary for the Ambassador to visit Tokyo this summer.
